Crédit Agricole CIB appoints Benjamin Lamberg as Senior Country Officer for Japan

Hong Kong/Tokyo (8 September 2023) - Crédit Agricole CIB announces today the appointment of Benjamin Lamberg as Crédit Agricole CIB Senior Country Officer for Japan, effective October 1st, 2023 and subject to regulatory approval. The scope of the appointment covers both the banking and securities activities the Bank currently operates in Japan.

Based in Tokyo, Benjamin will be responsible for overseeing all the Bank's activities in Japan, deepening existing client relationships and further developing the Bank's local footprint. He will report to Jean-François Deroche, Crédit Agricole CIB, Senior Regional Officer for Asia-Pacific.

"Japan is a strategically important market in our Asia roadmap. Benjamin brings over 20 years of banking experience including a significant exposure to Asia-Pacific, specifically on market activities, which is a pillar of our business activities in Japan. Under Benjamin's leadership and, together with the solid business model we have developed in Japan, we are strongly positioned to further enhance our success for the years to come," said Jean-François Deroche, Senior Regional Officer for Asia-Pacific at Crédit Agricole CIB.

Crédit Agricole CIB's history in Japan dates back to 1936. Today, the Bank is one of the largest foreign banks in the country, supporting financial institutions and corporations, both local and multinational. The Bank has built a strong profile in cross-border financing and advisory services, structured financing especially in the real estate and aviation sectors, as well as in investment and market capabilities through its hedging and structuring expertise. The Bank is also a pioneer in ESG financing and has consistently contributed to the country's energy transition.
